The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Kansas City District, intends to issue a solicitation for the demolition, renovation and re-adaption of facilities at Darulaman for the CAPDIV, Afghanistan National Army (ANA) in Kabul Province, Afghanistan. Re-Adapt three Barracks Education/Training Classrooms. All rooms shall be re-purposed as use for educational Re-Adapt eighteen Barracks. Buildings shall be re-adapted to for standard barracks design of an open bay on each end. The buildings are single story, dormitory style buildings made of reinforced concrete and masonry construction, floor plans have a central shower, shave and ablution area that requires renovation as well. Most floor plans are the same however some building may require the inclusion of enclosed rooms instead of open bays if the floor plan/layout dictates.

Re-Adapt two Administration buildings. All rooms shall be re-purposed as use for administration space. There shall be at least one conference room per building capable of seating at least 30 people. Open areas will be designated as open bay office space.

In general, the buildings are in fairly good shape. Most renovation during re-adaption is cosmetic. Painting, replacing some fixtures, repairing floors can be assumed in all re-adaption/renovations of buildings. Some electrical, plumbing work will be required but most re-adaptions will be re-purposing the building for its original indented use and applying cosmetic touch ups. Exterior walls will be repaired at foundations. All the exterior and interior surfaces shall be painted. All doors will be replaced.
